

SPAIN

IT'S ALWAYS A GOOD TIME TO TRAVEL TO SPAIN.

THE LAND

Spain is one of the warmest countries in Europe, and has over 3,000 hours of sunshine a year. The Canary Islands, due to their geographic location, have an annual temperature of 22°C on the coast. Most of the territory of Spain is located on the Iberian Peninsula, although the country also has two archipelagos (the Balearic Islands and the Canary Islands) and the cities of Ceuta and Melilla, on the coast of Africa. Spain has over 8,000 kilometres of coastline with some of the best beaches imaginable. You'll be able to bathe in the beautiful waters. The coast will surprise you with its variety: from the peaceful sands of Andalusia and the Mediterranean, the coves of the Balearic and Canary Islands, to the natural landscapes and cliffs of the beaches in the north. More importantly this country and its islands are connected by transport network, (plane, train, boat, car...) allows you to maximize the most of your stay visiting cities such as Madrid, Barcelona, Bilbao, Seville, Cordoba, Granada, Saragossa, Santiago de Compostela, Valencia and many more.

ART AND CULTURE

There are numerous cultural sites in all the major cities which no visitor should miss. In Madrid, you should make a point of heading for what is known as the 'Paseo del Arte' or 'art walk, an itinerary which starts at one of the world's most important galleries: the Prado Museum. Barcelona (in the northeast of the country) is another key site – this city is a paradise of Modernism thanks to some of the works created here by the famous architect Gaudí, including the Sagrada Familia cathedral and Güell Park. In southern Spain you'll be captivated by the great Mosque of Cordoba, considered the most important Islamic work in the Western world, and by the gardens and palaces of the Alhambra in Granada, one of the most visited monuments in Spain. Seville and its cathedral, Valencia and its City of Arts and Sciences, Bilbao and its Guggenheim Museum... these are just a few other examples of places to take your breath away. Centuries of history have left behind a spectacular array of monuments. It's no coincidence that Spain is the country with the third greatest number of UNESCO-designated World Heritage sites. What's more, in its over 1,400 museums you'll find masterpieces by great artists such as Goya, Picasso and Velázquez, genuine symbols of Spanish culture.

GASTRONOMY

Eating in Spain is a genuine privilege, as it's home to products of unbeatable quality, many of which have been awarded their own designation of origin. In fact 'going out for tapas' is a very common custom in Spain, and involves strolling from bar to bar sampling delicious canapés and the house specialties in each place. You can also visit wineries and learn all about wine tasting as you sample some of Spain's best-known wines.

ENTERTAINMENT

In this Mediterranean country, the nightlife is particularly intense. Pubs and clubs are open until three in the morning, and in some cases through till dawn. There are also numerous other options available, such as taking in a flamenco show or a musical... in the day visitors can take part in activities which include water sports, golf (it has over 400 golf courses), skiing (Spain is the second most mountainous country in Europe) and hiking. All year round, visitors can take part and enjoy traditional events and experience typical celebrations such as carnival in Santa Cruz de Tenerife and Cadiz (in February), Easter Week (in March-April), the Fallas bonfire festival (in March) and the bull-running in San Fermín (in July) are just a few of the festivities which are famous throughout the world. Spain is all this and much more. A country known for its friendliness, luminosity and its good-natured high spirits. Come and be captivated by the Mediterranean character and by the openness and friendliness of its people. Surrender to the magic of its streets. This is a place where life is always enjoyed to the utmost.
